

CPD Framework leading to a BSc (Hons) in Applied Health Sciences
The Practice of Sexual Health through Negotiated Learning
APPS3180

Negotiated learning allows students to specialise in particular areas of healthcare within the Applied Health Sciences programme. Using this module, in addition to the application of theory from the Contemporary Issues in Contraception and Sexual Health module, means you can use this negotiated learning study towards developing your clinical practice.

This module can be used to provide qualified Nurses, Midwives and Health Visitors with an opportunity to develop the skills necessary to support confident and competent sexual health practice.

Assessment

Seminar presentation or reflective essay
70 hours in Sexual health/ contraception clinics and completion of a practice portfolio

Essential

A Registered Practitioner with the NMC.
Must have completed Contemporary Issues in Contraception and Sexual Health

Course participants are advised that this module attracts an additional practice fee determined by individual trusts, to support the resources required to provide supervised practice.

Please note that all students must have a current CRB check and indemnity insurance

Study Leave Form

All students employed by a Worcestershire or Herefordshire NHS Trust have to complete a study leave form if they want (a) to study in works time, or (b) want the Trust to fund or part fund the course, or both. The Strategic Health Authority has asked that we only accept applications which are accompanied by a copy of an authorised study leave form.

Please ensure that funding for your study leave has been authorised by the Education lead for your Trust, before submitting your application, together with your study leave form.
