

APPS 3218 — Death, Dying & Bereavement - Supporting Across the Life Span

Module Code:	APPS 3218	Cost:	£270.00
Module Title:	Death, Dying & Bereavement - Supporting Across the Life Span
Department:	IHSCP	2011 Dates:
Subject:	BSc (Hons) Applied Health Sciences
Module Leader:	Heather Campbell		• 9 th May (preparatory day), 16 th , 17 th , 18 th , 19 th and 20 th May 2011
Type:	Undergraduate Open
Level:	6
Module Credits:	20
Module Status in
Relation to courses:	Optional
Pre-requisites:	Evidence of Diploma level equivalency/recent level 5 study

Short Module Descriptor

This module focuses on enabling those professionals supporting individuals and families facing death to develop essential knowledge and skills to support patients and carers across all age groups at the time of dying, death and bereavement.

Module Indicative Content

- Factors that influence responses to loss and bereavement e.g. cultural, temporal, political.
- Different types of death – traumatic, sudden, expected
- Theory around loss, grief, death, dying
- Disenfranchised grief
- Complicated grief
- Death of a child
- Death of a parent
- Age specific issues around end of life, death & dying
- Communication skills
- Ways to support – literature, art etc.
- Specific examples of multi professional intervention e.g. psychological, spiritual, bereavement support
- Reflective practice and reflection
- Peer assessment

Bookings & Enquiries

Please contact one of the following staff at the Education & Resource Centre:

Heather Campbell	-	Head of Education
Pip Nicholson	-	Nurse Tutor
Rebecca Stewart	-	Education & Resource Centre Administrator

Or alternatively, visit our website for regular updates, flyers and forms to download:
www.strichards.org.uk/education