

Lecture Theatres, St John's and City Campus

The Yelland and Urwin lecture theatres at the St John's Campus, which seat up to 200 each, are equipped with the very latest technology and have a number of features including touch screen control, induction systems for the hard of hearing, voice reinforcement and the ability to record to digital voice recorders for podcasting.

The Yelland lecture theatre is a high specification facility with Blu-ray HD projection, Dolby Surround sound, PA system and audience mics. Both the Urwin and Yelland lecture theatres can be linked together which means that you can reach an audience of 400 people.

There are a number of other modern lecture theatres at the St John's Campus, all are equipped with tiered seating and most have the following equipment as standard but please confirm the exact specification when making your booking:

- PC
- DVD/Video player
- Slide Projector
- Data Projector
- Visualiser
- Projection Screen
- OHP
- Induction Loop
- Mic

The City campus has a light spacious lecture theatre (not tiered) which will easily accommodate up to 80 guests.
