

Branwen Bingle

Senior Lecturer in Primary Education

Institute of Education

Contact Details

email: b.bingle@worc.ac.uk

tel: 01905 54 2062

Qualifications

2010 - Current PhD/MPil University of Worcester: Who do you think you are? A critical analysis of the potential interplay between the recruitment of primary teachers and constructions of teaching in children's literature

2010 University of Worcester PG level module Mentoring and Coaching: Pass (distinction) 20 credits

2010 University of Worcester PGCert Learning and Teaching in HE

2008 Open University MA Ed Applied Linguistics

2008 Open University PGCert Professional Studies in Education

2007 Open University PGCert Social Sciences

1997 University of Reading BA Ed Hons (QTS) Drama with English

Teaching & Research

Professional Studies in Education

Primary English

Beyond the Classroom

Applied Linguistics

Cultural Diversity and Inclusion

Citizenship and Identity

Professional Bodies

Fellow of the HEA

CEOP Ambassador

Publications

Bingle, B. (2011) Images of teachers in children's literature and their messages for ITE, UKLA http://www.ukla.org/downloads/UKLA_Chester_International_Conference_Papers_2011.pdf

Hughes, S., Bingle, B., Crabtree, H., Irving, S., Perrigo, A., Robinson, C.,

Beattie, B. (2009) A sense of self: recognising the issues and complexities of establishing a cultural identity within a rural school context, ESCalate

Beattie, B. (2007) Succession Planning Pilot – Action Research presentation, TLA/ GTC

External Responsibilities

© University of Worcester Henwick Grove, WR2 6AJ Tel: 01905 855000 - Last reviewed: Thursday, 24 May 2012

Page can be found:

Home / Discover Worcester / Academic departments / Institute of Education / Meet our experts / Branwen Bingle

<http://www.worcester.ac.uk/discover/branwen-bingle.html>