

PhD Studentships

The University of Worcester offers a number of research studentships each year. These are usually three-year, full-time doctoral research studentships. All studentships are advertised in the national press and are available on a competitive basis.

All applicants should apply using the Application Form listed with the relevant studentship below, and return this by the closing date to the Research School either by post or email to: research@worc.ac.uk

PhD Studentships for entry in October 2017

1 Socio-historical examination of sport, physical activity and leisure cultures, identities and communities

The University of Worcester is seeking to grow its research capacity in the socio-cultural aspects of sport, exercise, and the body. In particular, the University wishes to strengthen its research on the varied roles that sport and physical cultures may have in the (re)construction of identities, communities and experiences of local and/or transnational populations.
