

Preparing for the job market

Worcester graduates are some of the most successful in the country when it comes to employment.

Our courses are relevant and many are practically based. Our flexible approach means that you can combine subjects you're interested in, creating a degree that's tailored to your interests and career ambitions.

We also offer the following opportunities to enhance your employability:

- Work experience
- Volunteering
- Course placements
- Internships
- Online environments that will help you to manage your study and develop new skills
- Resources to help you develop presentation skills, writing letters, producing CVs, completing application forms and a searchable database of vacancies.
- Meeting employers face-to-face at our busy recruitment fairs, employer presentations, careers talks and skills workshops
- Help with establishing your own business from start-up grants to networking and entrepreneurial skills using our dedicated Entrepreneurship and Innovation Centre
