Your referee should know you well enough to write about you and your suitability for study. The referee should not be a family member, other relatives or friends. References are often provided by an employer or a tutor from higher education. The latter is particularly appropriate if you have studied in the last five years. Please attach your completed reference to your application form if possible. The University will contact the second referee directly should a further reference be required. You only need one reference for Undergraduate degree and two references for Postgraduate degree.

Advice for Referees

This advice is intended for all referees, including tutors, employers, careers advisers and other suitable persons. Please follow the guidance that is relevant to the applicant requesting the reference.

The University of Worcester uses references to assist the admissions process when assessing an applicant's suitability for further study. It is the only part of the application that the applicants do not write themselves. We are looking for the following key facts about a student:

- The student's academic performance in their post-16 education
- Their potential for academic success in higher education
- Why the course they have chosen is suited to them
- Any personal qualities which will benefit them at university, such as skills, aptitude, enthusiasm
- What they can bring to the university, such as extra-curricular activities and interests.

If you can, read the whole application so that you can understand the applicant's intended career direction, chosen courses and preferred places of study. When writing your reference, you do not need to repeat any of the information that the student has given, unless you want to comment on it.

If you are writing a reference for an international applicant, please write in English. If the applicant's first language is not English, please comment on their ability to write and speak in English, and indicate if any of their studies were taught in English.

If you teach the applicant now or taught them prior to their taking a break from education, please give details and describe how they compare with others in their class.

If the applicant is on an access course, foundation course or other one-year course, you may not have known them long enough to write a full reference. In this case, please say so and explain that you are providing a temporary reference (including as much detail as you can) and will provide a complete reference next spring. All supplementary references should be sent directly to the University.

When writing a reference for any applicant, including those outside the UK, please remember that, under the Data Protection Act, the applicant can ask for a copy of the reference and any other personal information that we have about them. If the application, including the reference, has any information missing, or has any false or misleading information, the university has the right to cancel the application and withdraw any offers without reimbursing any associated fees.

Section 11 – Use of Agent

Please let us know if you have used an educational agency during your application process. If yes, please complete this section. If No, please proceed to section 12.

Section 12 - Disclosure of criminal convictions

To help reduce the risk of harm or injury to students and/or staff caused by the criminal behaviour of other students, you must inform us about any relevant criminal convictions that you have. Relevant criminal convictions are only those convictions for offences against the person, whether of a violent or sexual nature, and convictions for offences involving unlawfully supplying controlled drugs or substances where the conviction concerns commercial drug dealing or trafficking. Convictions that are spent (as defined by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974) are not considered to be relevant and you should not reveal them unless you are applying for courses in teaching, health, social work and courses involving work with children or vulnerable adults.

By entering an X in the box you will not be automatically excluded from the application process. However, we may want to consider the application further or ask for more information before making a decision.

Courses in teaching, health, social work and courses involving work with children or vulnerable adults

For these courses, you must enter X in the box if any of the following statements apply to you

- (a) I have a criminal conviction
- (b) I have a spent criminal conviction
- (c) I have a caution (including a verbal caution)
- (d) I have received a reprimand and/or final warning

For these courses, you will need an 'enhanced disclosure document' from the Criminal Records Bureau (www.crb.gov.uk). We will send you the appropriate documents to complete.

All other courses

For these courses, you must enter X in the box if either of the following statements apply to you:

- (a) I have a relevant criminal conviction that is not spent
- (b) I am serving a prison sentence for a relevant criminal conviction.

If statement (b) applies to you then you must also give the prison address as your postal address on page 1 of your application and a senior prison officer must support your application.

Convictions that are spent (as defined by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974) are not considered to be relevant and you should not reveal them.

If you are convicted of a relevant criminal offence after you have applied, you must tell us. Do not send details of the offence; simply tell us that you have a relevant criminal conviction. We may then ask you for more details.

Section 13 - Declaration

When you sign the form, you agree to the following conditions:

- (a) The information you have given is complete and accurate. If we believe that you or your referee have left out any information or given false or misleading information we may take any necessary steps to check whether it is accurate or complete. We have the right to cancel your application. If you have any reason to believe that information we have about you is not accurate or complete, you must tell us.
- (b) The university may, at any time, ask you, your referee or your employer to provide more information about your application (e.g. proof of identity or qualifications). If we do not receive that information by a set date, or if the information is not satisfactory, we can cancel your application.
- (c) The university tries to process applications and related decisions efficiently and accurately. However, we will not be liable for any mistakes or delays or any loss or damage caused by mistakes or delays or if the university changes its decisions later.
- (d) If you accept an offer of a place you agree to abide by the rules and regulations of the university.
- (d) If you become a student, the university undertakes to take all reasonable steps to provide educational services in the manner set out in the prospectus. - (f) The university does not undertake any absolute obligation whatsoever to provide educational services in the manner specified in the prospectus or in any other document, nor does it undertake any other obligation in respect of the provision of educational services which is more onerous than the obligations set out herein.
- (g) Your application is a contract between you and the university. No one else can enforce any part of this contract under the terms of the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 or any other legislation.
- (h) If you become a student of the university, this notice shall be a term of any contract between you and the university. Any offer of a place made to you by the university is made on the basis that in accepting such an offer you signify your consent to the incorporation of this notice as a term of any such contract. The university will use the information on your application form to create a student record and process data about you in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998. The university will provide data about you to the Higher Education Statistics Agency.

The Data Protection Act

When you sign your application form, you consent to the processing of your personal data (as defined by the Data Protection Act 1988) by the university. You accept that:

We will make a charge for this service to cover administrative costs. Please return your completed application form to:
