

SCCS2002 Coaching and Mentoring (Level 5)

This 30-credit short course develops the knowledge and skills needed for supporting others in professional settings

This course will introduce you to key philosophies and frameworks of coaching and mentoring practice to develop your ability to support children, young people and adults in a range of settings.

Through demonstration and practical coaching sessions, you will learn the core skills and techniques of coaching and mentoring.

You will be encouraged to engage with models of reflection to gain self-awareness in your coaching and mentoring practice.

This course has been designed with employers to ensure that it provides the knowledge and skills needed in the education, early years and children's services sectors.

Why study a short course?

- Learn new skills and gain professional knowledge needed to work with children in education, early years and children's services.
- Build your portfolio, meet and network with others in education, early years and children's services.
- Try out higher education without committing to a full degree.
- Gain a University of Worcester certificate of credit and potentially use your short course towards a degree in the future.

How will I learn?

You will be taught over 12 weeks beginning with a full day in-person launch conference where you can meet the other students on your course on 27th January 2024.

This will be followed by weekly evening live-online teaching sessions in the virtual classroom and flexible online learning activities to fit around your work and commitments

What entry qualifications do I need?

Your application will be considered on evidence of relevant experience and prior learning. We welcome applications from experienced and mature learners who do not have formal GCSE/A Level qualifications.

Is student finance available for short courses?

Tuition fee loans are available for this short course as part of the government's preparations for the Lifelong Learning Entitlement. You will be eligible for a loan if you live in England, even if you have had student loans for university courses in the past.
